

Data Dictionary

FatalitiesAdditionalParts Table

The FatalitiesAdditionalParts table has the same structure as the Fatalities table. It contains records of fatality “additional parts” findings that had already been assigned a FatalityNumber when the additional parts were found. For example, a wing might be found on one day, when the previous week a nearly entire carcass of the same fatality had been found and assigned a FatalityNumber.